Call for Papers

Special Issue:

AHP/ANP: The Next Generation

For this special issue we invite original research contributions to the theory, computation, and practice of Analytic Hierarchy/Network Process. We welcome high quality papers that address any type of decision problem, may propose methods and algorithms for solving them and may describe important applications of AHP/ANP in practice. The deadline for submissions is June 30, 2021.

This special issue is connected but not restricted to the International Symposium on the Analytic Hierarchy Process (ISAHP) conference. The participants of the 16th ISAHP are invited to submit their papers. Contributions arising from papers given at a conference should be substantially extended and should cite the conference paper where appropriate. Furthermore, all researchers worldwide working on the topics indicated above are also invited to contribute.

Instructions for authors can be found at:

<http://www.springer.com/business/operations+research/journal/10479>

Authors should submit their high quality manuscript via Springer's web-based system, Editorial Manager by June 30, 2021. When prompted for the article type, please select Original Research. You will then be asked if the manuscript belongs to a special issue, please choose the special issue's title, AHP/ANP: The Next Generation to ensure that it will be reviewed for this special issue. Manuscripts submitted after the deadline may not be considered for the special issue and may be transferred to a regular issue.

Submitted manuscripts should not have been published previously, nor be under consideration for publication elsewhere. The submitted manuscripts are sent to reviewers as they arrive but the editors reserve the right to reject any manuscript that does not present a high level of scholarship before the manuscript is sent to reviewers. Accepted papers will be published online individually, before print publication.

Tentative time scale:

- Submission deadline: 30 June 2021
- Final decision: 31 November 2021.
